Shaker's New Look

The tower, a traditional symbol of Shaker, was almost the only part of the school that remained completely unchanged this year. Though we kept all the traditions that have given our school its personality, a new look was apparent in many phases of Shaker life.

The construction was most evident because of the noise and inconvenience it caused during the fall. Sophomores will never miss the court, but to the juniors and seniors, a picturesque part of Shaker is no longer the same. Rooms were modernized by complete repainting and addition of fluorescent lights. Nine teachers, a social director and 400 new students joined us. Every Tuesday after school, the snack bar was open under the supervision of the Social Council. Accelerated courses and special techniques were attempted for the first time in some classes.

With these and numerous other changes, it has been a hectic year; the halls were even more crowded and noisy than usual. Yet there was the compensation of being the first to witness such growth and development. What will be commonplace to future classes was fresh to us. Whether we realized it or not, we were all part of a special year at Shaker, a mixture of tradition and progress. In this 1955 Gristmill, we hope to preserve memories of that year.

Students cheerfully endured the constant din of buzz saws as the school received a major "face-lifting."

Each Tuesday after school found Jim Breitweg and other members of the Social Council working in the Snack Bar, concocting treats for hungry Shakerites.

New light was shed on the subjects at Shaker this year.

Teachers Try New Techniques

Enameling was attempted as an experiment in the advanced art classes this year. Here, Lila Cohn, Donna Rebman, and Nancy Jones are seen using the new kiln.

Other departments expanded and enriched their courses to give interested students a taste of more difficult work. One of the trigonometry classes, for example, spent three weeks at the end of the semester studying calculus, a course usually taught only in college.

Mrs. Harriet Strela flashes one of her students' themes on the screen with an opaque projector. By means of this handy piece of equipment, a whole class can benefit from the corrections on one paper.

Other types of audio-visual apparatus were also extensively used this year, especially in the science and social studies departments.

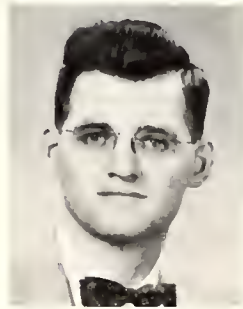

Despite the increasing number of students in the high school, classes have retained their informal atmosphere. Mr. Drayer's trigonometry class, shown here, arranged their chairs in a double horseshoe pattern. This arrangement enabled the teacher to sit closer to the students and gave everyone the feeling of being in the front row.

Ten Join Shaker's Staff

This year Miss Louise Hollon, Dean of Girls, had the assistance of Miss Marion Darone, who helped with the sophomore girls' programs. Miss Hollon advised senior and junior girls on their programs and college plans.

Mr. Marris, Mr. Goodman, Mr. Bristol, and Mr. Drayer. This year four teachers helped with the job of boys' counseling. While Mr. Morris and Mr. Drayer took care of disciplinary problems, Mr. Bristol and Mr. Goodman assisted Mr. Senft with interpretation of tests and vocational counseling.

With the increasing enrollment, greater demands are made of the faculty. For most, a working day is not over at the close of school, for staff members sponsor clubs, work with committees, give time to social functions, and coach sports. Many are active in professional organizations and community affairs. Seniors are grateful for the special classes held after school to help them prepare for College Board Examinations. Of the seventy members of the faculty, forty-eight have the Master's degree, two have a PH.D. and one an LL.D. Several are working for advanced degrees.

In Memoriam

MR. GUY HENRY 1906-1954

Mr. Guy Henry was at Shaker for eighteen years in the Business Education Department. He not only taught his subject matter, but with his wise words and original aphorisms he also taught lessons of life. Above all, he always challenged his students to do their best.

MR. MELVIN MILLER 1906-1954

In 1936 Mr. Melvin Miller came to Shaker to teach mathematics. A man constantly concerned with school problems, he later became Dean of Boys. Always impartial and just with his students, Mr. Miller was respected by everyone.

Personnel with Personality

Miss Alice Borne and her staff provide us with good noon meals.

Miss Barbara Hlovin, school nurse, gives an ear test to a student.

First: Mr. Isiah Ward, Mr. Shepherd Perry, Mrs. Alice Singleton. Second: Mr. Joe Mack, Mr. Percy Baker, Mr. Eliatt Tann, Mr. Hubert May, Mr. Leray Browne, Mr. Neil Martin, Mr. Crosby Ramey.

SENIORS

WHEN the new graduates had at last received their diplomas, they looked back on their school careers with varied feelings. A few were indifferent; some were relieved; others were sorrowful. Herb Goulder, Janice Twigg, and Sue Lowry express these same emotions as they view a stack of all the books from which they studied during three years in high school. But almost every senior will remember with pleasure his classmates and the activities that made his last year at Shaker the busiest and the most exciting.

UNDERCLASSMEN

S HAKER'S large and spirited junior and sophomore classes provided many new faces in '55. The underclassmen made themselves known and noticeable by serving the school both in important positions and in more inconspicuous ways. At the right, several junior girls are seen preparing refreshments after a senior varsity hockey game with Hathaway Brown.

Junior Class Officers . . .

First: Secretary Debbie Davies. Second: President Jim Greene, Social Chairman Barbara Biederman. Third: Treasurer Pete Crumbine, Vice-president Dennis Goodman.

The junior class this year was essentially the same as in previous years in the fact that they did essentially the same things. They had their class skating party, their junior prom, their activities, and their studies. Yet, it was the way in which the juniors went about these things that set them apart, and will make them look back in ten years and remember their junior year as more than just their eleventh grade year.

The junior class exemplified the word "spirit," by enthusiastic participation in every phase of school life. In athletics, the ability, devotion, and intense desire to win of the junior boys was proven by the number of boys who won their letters. The girls, too were ardent teammates for their athletic teams proved victorious through daily practicing, and true enjoyment of the sport. Not only in sports did the juniors excel, but in dramatics, Y-Teen and Hi-Y, sport clubs, service clubs, in working on dances, and planning in Student and Social Council. There were juniors leading in every field of school activity open to them. But above all, the juniors received a keen pleasure from doing things together. Friendship was the keynote, not separately among the boys or the girls, but within the class. The juniors in 1955 were a team.

Capable sophomore officers headed by Roger McArt fostered spirit and loyalty within their class. The tenth graders cooperated well as a group and plunged with vigor into the activities of the school to become a valuable and productive part of Shaker High. A new seriousness was apparent in studies and a considerable number were named to Honor Study Hall in recognition of their conscientious approach to their work.

The year's social activities were kicked off to an enthusiastic start with the Big-Little sister party which did much to integrate the Sophomore co-eds. Also highly successful was the Sock Hop, a sophomore-sponsored school dance.

The class of '57 participated with ambition and skill on the athletic fields. The girls played with true championship spirit in all the sports in which they competed. The Jayvee football team's excellent record was a very encouraging beginning, and the basketball, swimming, and wrestling talents of the class looked extremely promising for the two years to come.

STUDENT LIFE

UNDER the guidance of a new director, the social program bubbled over with clever, original ideas. Shakerites also displayed spirit and made new friends at traditional events such as the bonfire and the homecoming game. A section of the stands at that game is shown at the right. During the week, life at Shaker centered about classes and free moments in which students talked about tests, teachers, and other students.

Every Monday morning, Shaker students begin a cycle that repeats itself thirty-six times every year. During this period, each student does many things that become routine, but dances, athletic contests, and special assemblies and speakers add variety and interest to his schedule. The Gristmill presents a week of life at Shaker.

Some Shakerites arrive very early . . .

Shakerites Arrive at School . . .

And start on last night's homework, as Emily Leuchtag and Sharon Ode are doing.

Others have the unpleasant task of paying textbook fines.

The banging of locker doors is a familiar sound.

Roger Penske cautiously sniffs the  $H_2S$  which he has just prepared.

Gone forever are the days when students learned only by studying textbooks. Shaker Heights High School and other schools throughout the country have adopted new methods of education.

Movies and slides are used by almost every department of the school to emphasize important topics. C.E.P. classes stage a political rally before every election. Biology and sociology courses include field trips as part of the course of study. Students in language classes often prepare reports on the country whose language they are learning. In addition, many classes hear distinguished guest speakers. The exciting and the unusual play an important role in classroom life at Shaker.

Before Returning to Classes

Not everyone in this art class is busy creating a masterpiece.

Life in the classroom at Shaker has been changing in recent years. The traditional subjects are still offered, but, in addition, commercial courses such as bookkeeping and typing have been introduced. Accelerated classes for superior students in mathematics and science have met with success. Also, the guidance program has been expanded to accommodate every student.

The last student has departed for the day, but he will return over the weekend. Shaker's recently expanded social program includes a variety of dances, parties, and recreational activities in order to fill the needs of every Shakerite. Interscholastic athletic events also attract attention, causing some students to travel as far as Canton or Columbus to cheer for a Shaker victory. When the classroom doors are closed and the books are set aside, Shaker still plays an important part in the life of its students.

ACTIVITIES

SCHOOL is officially over at 3:25, but few Shakerites left the building at that time. Most of them spent one to two hours at committee or club meetings, planning, learning new skills, and having fun. Special opportunities were available this year for those interested in music or drama since the Broadway musical needed both types of talent. Shown here are Gay Cornwell, Bob Eastman, Dave Evans, and Ellen Passan in a scene from Annie Get Your Gun.

The pep band really gogogoes at the bonfire.

Marching in ranks ten by five, this year's band provided musical color at football games and pep rallies. At the Shaw game they played host to the Northwestern Marching Band at the half-time show. The band participated in 25th anniversary ceremonies at Shaker Square, which included a Sousa program with other bands, and helped Santa Claus arrive at Van Aken-Center and Kinsman-Lee.

Twenty-six band members played in the Greater Cleveland Instrumental Contest, fourteen as soloists and twenty-four in ensembles. In the Spring, the band climaxed a successful season with its annual concerts for Shaker grade schools and a joint concert with the Junior High Band.

This year the Majorettes wore brand-new more comfortable uniforms.

Orchestra Welcomes New Director

This year the orchestra welcomed a new director, Mr. Robert Liebold, to its podium. The thirty member group participated in the Lake Erie Orchestra Festival at Parma in February and, assisted by the Junior High orchestra, opened the Spring Instrumental Concert. Orchestra members experimented with a great variety of music, and some even tried conducting the group.

The Orchestra rehearses for the Spring Concert.

One of the most active small groups in the school this year was the Chanticleers. This sixteen voice group met before school to rehearse and performed at school dances, at the Canterbury Club, and for the P.T.A.

The Girls' Glee Club was primarily for sophomore girls preparing to participate in the choir in their junior year. The girls in the club sang in the Christmas Concert and entertained at meetings of the P.T.A. and the Parents' Music Committee.

Choir Brings

The Choir highlighted the musical year with the production Annie Get Your Gun with its tuneful score by Irving Berlin. This May spectacle colorfully combined singing and dancing with a fast moving plot in one of the year's most enjoyable events for Shakerites.

But the musical did not occupy all the Choir's time. March 18 at Heights High, Mr. Ellis conducted the seven hundred voice massed choir of the Lake Erie League Festival. Other public performances were at Shaker Square and Public Square, at Plymouth Church and at an assembly for the student body.

Broadway to Shaker

At Christmas the Choir presented an evening concert featuring music by Mozart, Beethoven, and Randall Thompson. It also provided a musical setting as the Modern Dance Group interpreted Bach's Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, and invited Choir alumni to help them close the concert with the Halleluiah Chorus from Handel's Messiah.

The Choir's busy schedule, its spirit, and its friendly atmosphere contributed to its highly successful year.

Students Study Dramatic Arts

Drama minded Thespians were a busy group of people this year. During the fall they organized a charade team which appeared twice on a local television program. Nine new members were accepted at the two initiations, and in December the group held their third annual reunion for all the Thespian alumnus. Thespians attended shows at the Cleveland theaters together and gave full support to the school play Harvey. As the greatest project of the year, these students were the indispensable behind the scenes crew for the choir production of Annie Get Your Gun, doing everything from directing to makeup.

First: Nancy Stromberg, Muriel Moss, Sally November, Lila Cahn, Jean Blumenthal, Louise Rose. Second: Michael Greenberg, Mike Smukler, Mary Beth Jamieson, Sue Lowry, Carol Green, Peggy Beeson, Marty Carter, John Frankel. Third: Chuck Sanford, Jack Brakeshire, Harlan Bigalow, Harvey Mierke, Gordon Baldwin, Bill Pomeranz, Kent Wiley, Dennis Kelly.

Arlene Grossman, Gordon Baldwin, Ann McClellan, David Luke, Charles Sanford, and Louise Rose, members of Drama Production Club, present The Mad Hatters for Thespians and visiting Girl Scouts.

Under the direction of Miss Klein, the five advanced members of Drama Workshop met informally each day to study many phases of the dramatic arts: acting, staging, directing, and makeup. The Man in the Bowler Hat, a play presented in an assembly, was prepared chiefly by these students.

Bowlers Pin Hopes on Strikes

The crash of scattering pins was a pleasant sound to the members of Girls' and Boys' Bowling Clubs. The girls met on Wednesday night to bowl for enjoyment and practice, while the thirty-two members of Boys' Bowling formed sixteen teams in competition for the club championship. Besides vying for club honors, the keglers worked to improve their skill and for a chance to compete interscholastically in the Lake Erie League meet in the spring.

Rifle Clubs Aim for Accuracy

Seventy-two seniors in six different groups banged away at targets in the rifle range once every three weeks this year. Using United States Army rifles, the groups were instructed by Mr. Mowrey in correct shooting techniques. The Club's "aim" was to achieve accuracy for National Rifle Association awards.

Seated: Social Chairman Harlene Henry, Assistant Treasurer Mack Rosenblum.

"Hay que fomentar un mejor entendimiento entre los Estados Unidos y los Países de Habla Española."

Guided by this thought of Cordell Hull, the Spanish Club endeavors to promote a better understanding of Latin America among Shaker High's Spanish students. Interesting and entertaining programs have helped to acquaint the members of the club with the customs of Spanish speaking people.

An illustrated travelogue of Spain acquainted the students with the picturesque and historic monuments of Castilian civilization. They learned to appreciate Latin American music through a lecture on Spanish instruments and arrangements by an ex-leader of a Puerto Rican band.

The Junior Council on World Affairs promotes world understanding by presenting a varied program that will acquaint members with international problems. As a part of this program, a movie on the United Nations was shown, and students who had visited foreign countries told of their trips. A high point of the year was a meeting at which exchange students from Western Reserve University told of their countries.

Some club members attended meetings of the Cleveland Council on World Affairs, and one was selected to represent Shaker in a student tour of the United Nations buildings in New York City.

President Jim Adler tells Vice-President Shelly Eisner, Secretary Lois Rabb, and Treasurer Barbara Meyerson of the latest developments on Formosa.

French Students Dream of Paris

Monsieur Smuckler, le disc-jockey presents:

French Club presented a varied and interesting program in an attempt to acquaint students with "le beau pays." The club spent "two weeks in France" viewing a travel film. A famous French disc-jockey, impersonated by Mike Smuckler, presented a program of songs and news reports from Radio-Paris. In January Mr. Neil McKeigan, the club sponsor, talked about the foreign language summer school at Middlebury, Vermont. The club was honored by the visit of the French Consul to Cleveland who talked on France's political and international outlook.

Chess Team Wins City Championship

3:35 in 306.

Shaker's eight-man chess team outscored West Tech in a rematch to capture the city interscholastic chess championship. This victory climaxed an undefeated season. Members of the team were Ralph Hodous, Dan Edwards, Gary Michael, Bruce Havighurst, Jim Somberg, George Petznick, and George McLain.

The team was not the only function of the Chess Club. At noon and after school, room 306 resounded with cries of "checkmate" as members played for the club championship, for practice, or merely for entertainment. The club also participated in Chess Week observances and invited chess masters to put on simultaneous exhibitions.

The SHAKERITE, that "expression of student opinion," has continued for the twenty-fourth year to bring Shaker students a sparkling four-page account of school life. Bringing out an issue approximately every two weeks, the reporters and the editorial board were kept busy anticipating the news well in advance of publication. Under the deft guidance of Burton Randall, Harold Richman and his staff introduced several new features such as "The Sophomore Beat," the "Our Reporting Ace" series, and Dick Lazzaro's humorous cartoons and caricature drawings. Business manager Sam Kinney was a familiar sight making his weekly rounds in search of those all important advertisements. Bi-weekly meetings brought the staff and editors closer together and enabled them to work together more efficiently.

Gristmill Features

"New Look"

The twenty juniors and seniors who produced what they like to think is the greatest Gristmill ever, assembled in the fall not knowing a layout from a pasteup. Only after months of leafing over old books and planning the new one, did they really begin to feel like editors. Few members of the staff will soon forget the anguish of seeing a perfect scene for a picture with no photographer on hand, the feeling of awe upon viewing the cover for the first time, the frustration of posing large group pictures, the crazy excursions to the darkroom.

Unique in the 1955 Gristmill are the "New Look" theme, the red and white hard cover, and the spectacular opening section. Their creators enjoyed working in secrecy during the year, but their greatest pleasure will be to see the school approve of the book they turned out.

Senior Y-Teen Officers: Nica Weston, president; Lynn Newmon, interclub representative; Nancy Barnett, social chairman; Eleanor Rand, service; Margie Mayher, treasurer; Marcia Allen, Red Cross; Elaine Nyman, secretary; Janet Meyer, vice president.

The most important project for Senior Y-Teens was the presentation of a variety show for children of the Cleveland Fresh Air Camp. The young boys and girls there enjoyed watching dance routines, comedy acts, musical numbers. Earlier in the year seniors worked on the Harvest Hop and planned the Christmas party for the combined chapters.

Juniors Execute Operation Bean Bag

By playing Santa Claus and making bean bags, the girls of Junior Y-Teen brought happiness to the Children's Friendly Inn, a day nursery sponsored by Red Feather. The juniors' activity was not all work, for early in the year they held a splash party. For the enjoyment of the three chapters, they planned a Mombo party at which an instructor from Arthur Murray's taught the popular new dance. In a more serious vein, the juniors saw One God, a movie about the methods of worship of various religions. Of course, the high spot of the program was the traditional style show held in the spring.

The sophomore Y-Teens became acquainted with members of the Junior and Senior chapters at the informal Coke Party held in September. At Christmas, the sophomores made paper Christmas tree decorations for the young children at the University Hospital. As their second project, the sophs packed health and first-aid kits which were sent to Korea. A Korean student studying in Cleveland showed a movie about Korea and talked of her country, giving the sophs a more personal interest in their project.

Sophomores Build Hi-Y Future

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of character," was the Hi-Y creed the members of Sophomore Hi-Y repeated at their impressive formal induction ceremony at Plymouth Church on October 5. The sophomores then set to work on succeeding Wednesday nights, electing their officers and learning parliamentary procedure through experience in their business meetings. The group planned programs and social events, and members participated in the combined activities of all three clubs.

Juniors Gain Hi-Y Experience

The Junior Chapter entered into the Hi-Y this year in a spirit of willing cooperation. Juniors helped gather wood for the football bonfire and contributed high spirit to activities of the combined chapters. Shaker was represented in the city-wide Hi-Y council by juniors, and two juniors campaigned for offices at the state-wide Youth in Government program. A well planned series of social events rounded out the year.

On December 19, the boys of the senior chapter and their dates entertained forty children at the annual Orphans' Party to climax two and one half years of planning and saving. The party, entirely under student direction, was easily the most important project in a year which saw the Senior Chapter assume leadership of the Combined Club. Seniors also planned the Fall Ball, the opening dance of the social season, and the Hi-Y spring picnic.

Varsity "S" met on Monday nights with Dick Morris presiding and Mr. Heinlen as advisor. This organization was primarily a service group and its members worked at swimming and wrestling meets and basketball games, as ticket-takers, ushers, and guards. In prior years, Varsity "S" participation and influence in the school had been diminishing, so this year it was the club's aim to be of more help to the school. The boys decided that one of the requisites of membership should be a prescribed number of services to the school during each semester. Each member's name was checked on a roster and duties were assigned in a planned sequence rather than haphazardly as in past years.

Lettermen Usher at Meets and Games

Student Assistants Volunteer Their Services

These very capable and trustworthy students were hand-picked by the deans, and spent many hours relieving their advisers of menial tasks. Among their duties were taking charge in the deans' absence, answering the phone and filing data. They were only too willing to help students who wandered in asking for anything from an aspirin to an up-to-date demerit record.

First: Norma Finkle, Donna Rebman, Carol Barber. Second: Janice Twigg.
Third: Jim Van Baalen, Nathan Horwitz, Howie Fisher.

First: Penny Johns, Gloria Lindsay, Joanne Tootikian, Marion Friedman. Second: Phyllis Sandman, Bessie Morino, Sue Burt, Lois Wertheim, Helen Lustig, Judy Koch, Gwen Daniels, Linda Beamer. Third: Carol Jones, Joan Stetzel. Fourth: Hetty Cawan, Ann Allen, Jane Stern.

The work done by the Library Assistants made it possible for the librarians to devote more time to reference work. The jobs of these volunteers included filing, helping students find books, writing overdue notices, and keeping the magazines in order. Sacrificing their study halls, most assistants worked three to five periods a week.

First: Lynn Newman, Nica Westan, Trinky Quay. Second: Harry Millis, Norm Jacobs, Dick Sanders.

Central Committee Manages Honor Study Hall

The Central Committee is a group of six seniors who assist Miss Sellers in running the Honor Study Hall. At the beginning of the year, the committee admitted new members and selected the advisers. Students who received offense cards were called before the committee; it then privately discussed the problem and passed judgment, awarding penalties according to the seriousness of the violation.

Demerit Panel Revises Rules

First: Marcia Boukalik, Mary Jane Price, Ken Berns, Ann Sherby. Second: Harold Richman, Earl Seidman, Jane Killpack.

This year the Demerit Panel had less business, for students received fewer demerits. In January, this group of five seniors and two juniors met to discuss proposals to revise the demerit system. The idea was to help students by calling them in front of the panel before they have accumulated many demerits.

These resolutions were passed by the Student Council and the new rules went into effect during the second semester.

First: Ann Samet, Edie Fellingner, Ellen Levand, Nancy Barnett, Judy Schanberg, Jane Watterson. Second: Walter Freedman, Dave Schneider, Marlene Marshall, Pete Garson, Harvey Schulnick. Third: Vic Samuelson, Larry Gusman, Bruce Havighurst, Chuck Armington, Dan Davis, George Albert.

The Honor Study Hall advisers were chosen at the beginning of the year by the Central Committee on the basis of their records in study hall. These advisers checked attendance and maintained order. Offense cards were issued by them to all students who violated the rules of Honor Study Hall.

Advisers and Boosters Maintain Order

Under the supervision of the vice-president of the Student Council and Mr. Robert Morris, the members of the Booster force gave up their study periods to guard the halls.

First: Judy Klein, Sandra Fain, Shari Kranz, Janis Suid, Janice Saffen, Joyce Slavin, Jean Bloamenthal, Gail Kwait, Carol Weiss, Bonnie Kane, Jaanne Crume, Andrea Williams. Second: Gayle Blumenfeld, Patricia Seria, Phyllis Kritzer, Hedda Cutler, Sherryl Givelber, Sharon Levine, Norma Reiter, Faith Sadugor, Gail Rosenbaum, Marjarie Haag, Marcia Hruby, Gail Hertzmark, Jane Cunat, Sandy Miesz, Neil Miller, Marlene Nudelman, Diane Vincent. Third: Daris Miller, Daris Gruber, Catherine Williams, Elaine Nyman, Shirlee Shafran, Carlo Nagy, Marilyn Mightan, Sue Rhodes, Mary Ann Weitzman, Mary Berk, Joan Linas, Joyce Ferguson, Jane Peirce, Deanne Wyman, Anita Baden, Alice

Many of the projects of this year's Student Council were outstandingly well done. The sale of activity tickets was the second best ever staged here and the Christmas Welfare Drive, a project done exclusively by Shaker, was the best recorded in our history. The Council also helped to perfect the demerit system and the point system. During a period of student unrest, it successfully sponsored a student forum, in which Shakerites were able to discuss their problems.

By visiting other schools and entertaining their representatives here, the Council tried to find new ideas and methods for improvement.

Student Council Plans Successful Drives

Social Council Sponsors Open Houses

Under the guidance of a new Social Director, Miss Hallister, the Social Council worked to improve the social program. It was responsible for the opening of the Snack Bar after school, a project which had been talked about before, but never attempted. On Tuesdays ice cream, soft drinks, and other refreshments were made available to hungry Shakerites.

The Social Council also succeeded in giving students a number of informal open houses here at school. The pool, the gyms, the Social Room, and the Snack Bar were opened for use at these get-togethers. The social program was built around informality this year and the open houses helped to achieve the theme.

In addition, the Council kept its scrap book up to date for the enjoyment of students and visitors.

First: Bob Stevens, Eunice Shapira, Linda Kahn, Judi Sue Eglin, Beverly Biederman, Gail Rosenbaum, Judi Eisenberg, Louise Abrams, Nancy Schweid. Second: Judy Walker, Ann Collins, Marcia Frankel, Norita Wyse, Hope Greenspan, Arlene Blaine, Kate Kramer, Marcia Hruby, Judy Cazzens, Lynn

SPORTS

TO MANY Shakerites, sports was the most absorbing and satisfying activity of all. Since most of last year's outstanding athletes had graduated, a new group of boys became teammates. These sophomores, juniors, and seniors did not have a spectacular year as far as victories were concerned, but they did have a chance to travel to other schools, to improve their skill, and to develop team spirit. Here, the bench at a football game stands tense and excited, encouraging the boys on the field.

Heights Clash Highpoint in Losing Season

It was a rough first half!

"This was the year we built character."

. . . Coach Halderman

Starting the 1954 football season against their traditional opening game rivals, South High, the Shaker Red Raiders looked very strong as they pounded out a convincing 23 to 0 victory. Early in the game, Lee Kwait picked off a South pass and raced sixty yards for the score. Ron Marchand tallied the last Shaker touchdown by going over from the three, after Dick Morris' blocked punt set up the play. The following Saturday, Maple Heights walked off with a 26 to 12 victory. Injuries hampered Shaker both in this game and in the following one against Brush, which saw the Arclights win by a score of 19 to 6.

Next, the Red Raiders traveled to Cleveland Heights to play their archrivals, who were then ranked sixth in the state. The Tigers scored in the first minute and a half, but after that it was all Shaker. Late in the second quarter, Dennis Goodman passed to halfback George Brown for a touchdown. The extra point was missed, so the Raiders trailed at halftime 7 to 6. Midway through the third quarter, Goodman again passed to Brown for another six points. With Shaker getting stronger all the time the game appeared to be won; however, Heights, capitalizing on a recovered fumble, punched over for the game winning touchdown with less than a minute and a half left. The final score read: Heights, 14; Shaker, 12.

Tom Halter breaking into the clear.

The following week, the Raiders met Lakewood. The eventual league champions received a real scare before scoring late in the fourth quarter to win 12 to 6. Brian Smyth recovered a fumble in the end zone for Shaker's only tally. In the game against Shaw, which followed, the Red Raiders had two first period touchdowns called back and finally lost 14 to 0.

Against Parma the next Saturday, Shaker scored first on a sixteen yard sweep by Billy German. After that, Parma took over, the final score being 41 to 19. The Raiders met Euclid in the final Lake Erie game and emerged victorious, 23 to 14. End Roger Penske paced the attack by blocking two kicks, one of which he recovered for a touchdown. Fullback Jack Fejes scored on the other.

To close the 1954 football season, Shaker traveled to Canton, where they were soundly beaten by a strong Canton Lehman team, 35 to 6. The Red Raiders did not win many games in this campaign, but with a few breaks, many of the losses might have been victories.

Rice and Heinlen Lead Jayvees to 6-1 Record

With this year's Jayvee team winning all but one football game, the rest of the Lake Erie League will have to be wary of the Red Raiders during the next two years. The Jayvees started the season with a convincing 20 to 9 victory over Maple Heights. Brush was the next to fall before the powerful Jayvee eleven, 12 to 6.

Cleveland Heights traveled to the local gridiron the following week, and as most Heights vs. Shaker games are, this one was very exciting. In the last minute of play with the score tied, Chuck Reiter passed to Randy Bartell for the game-winning touchdown. The final score read 20 to 14. The Jayvees suffered their only defeat at the hands of Lakewood the next week by the score of 27 to 6. After this, however, they bounced back to defeat both Shaw and Parma by identical scores of 6 to 0. A well-earned 12 to 6 victory over Euclid ended the season.

While the whole Jayvee team was outstanding, boys to watch especially next year are Dettelbach and Carlson in the backfield, and Freund, Eichorn, Jurek, and McArt in the line.

Coaches Heinlen and Rice should be congratulated for molding an inexperienced group of sophomores into a strong and well-balanced team.

J.V. Coaches Bob Rice and Fred Heinlen.

Lack of Height

Dennis Goodman stands ready for the rebound.

Due to a severe lack of height, this year's basketball team suffered a losing season. The tallest man on the team was Captain Earl Seidman who stands an even six feet. Coach Fred Heinlen was forced to employ a ball control type of offense to counteract this weakness. This consists of passing and screening until one person is open to shoot. With this type of offense, accurate shooting is necessary to win many games.

Corky Maniaci, with his deadly long shots and Ronnie Marchand with his jump shots gave Shaker the accuracy which was needed. The shooting and rebounding of Seidman and the rebounding of Dennis Goodman also aided the Red Raiders a great deal. Chuck Kahn, Chubby Holmes and Jerry Rordin alternated as the fifth man to round out the first five. Walt Lloyd, Ralph Evans, Dick Lloyd, Dennis Tamcsin, and Mike Blane also saw considerable action.

The highlights of the season were two victories over arch rival Heights and a near win over undefeated Shaw. In this game Shaker was leading all the way only to lose in the final minutes 64-59.

Maniaci, Goodman, Kahn, Tamcsin, Blane, and both Lloyds will be back to give Coach Heinlen high hopes for next year.

Since the J.V.s had never taken part in interscholastic competition before this year, Coach Noy Sanno had a big problem on his hands when the 1955 basketball season opened. He solved the problem of lack of experience early and it seemed that they were going to have a very good season. After winning four out of six, they hit a mid-season slump and lost six in a row before finally defeating Heights in a close game 61 to 55.

Standouts for the J.V.'s this season were Dick Inglis, Billy German, Doug Ganim and Roger McArt. They will undoubtedly see action next year playing for the varsity. Others who played a good deal this year were Arnie Eisenberg, Elliot Kaufman, Lou Body and Tom Jackson.

Elroy Kursh attempts a take-down.

Captain Jerry Weiss rides on top.

The 1954-55 defending state champion wrestling team found it a little harder going this year, but still ended on the winning side of the slate by taking six out of ten dual meets. Captain Jerry Weiss and George Brown were the only lettermen returning from last year's championship team.

The Red Raider team got off to a strong start by winning three meets in a row, but then lost a close one to John Adams, 22-20. This loss broke a winning streak of sixteen straight dual meets.

Regulars for Coach Zip Zednik were Tom Baldwin at 103, Weiss at 112, Dennis Donahue at 120, Matt Von Baeyer at 127, John Connor at 133, Brown at 138, Jack Freund at 145, Jim Camella at 154, Elroy Kursh at 165, Larry Amata at 175, and Dick Morris at heavyweight. Morris was the only wrestler to go undefeated, but several others were close to that mark.

Baldwin, Connor, Brown, and Freund will be back next year as the nucleus of another strong team.

Keep your mind on your work, George.

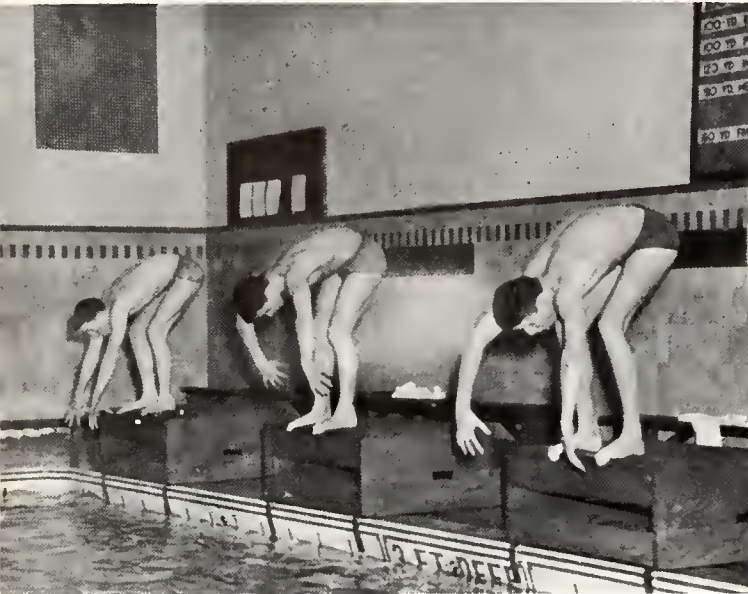

Under the coaching of John Newman, the J.V.s had another successful season this year. They worked out with the varsity and occasionally a J.V. man wrestled for the varsity. In wrestling, experience is very important, so the training the boys received in meets will be invaluable. The J.V.s wrestled at the same time as the varsity at opposite ends of the gym, so the spectators had two meets to watch at once.

Swimmers Take L.E.L. Crown

Timers ready, swimmers take your mark, get set . . . . .

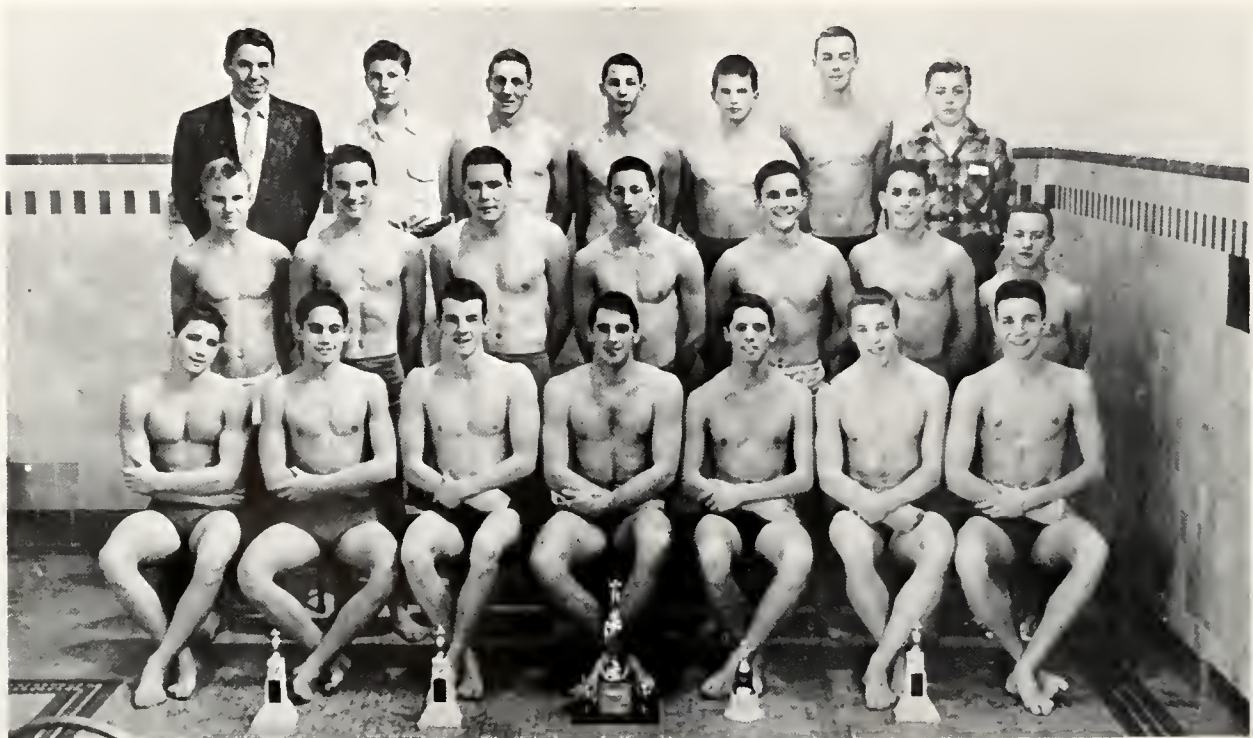

The defending state champions had another fine team this year. Led by Captain Chuck Armington and Dick Wilson, both freestylers, the Red Raiders splashed to victories over Heights, Lakewood, and Kent State High. They also won the Euclid Relays. The next week in the Shaker pool, Sandusky broke a sixteen meet winning streak held by Coach Paul Stark and his tankers.

After easily winning the next four meets, they met and were defeated by the University School team. This was one of the highlights of the swimming season for it featured a great individual duel between Dave Broderick and the U.S. swimmer in the 100 yard backstroke. Both were among the best in the state. Also in this meet Speed Olderman, Broderick, Armington and Wilson broke the old 160 yard freestyle relay record of 1:17.0 swimming the distance in 1:16.8. U.S. finally won the meet, but the performances of Olderman in the 200 yard freestyle, Wilson in the 100 yard freestyle and Chick Tate in the diving left little doubt that U.S. had beaten a powerful Shaker squad. Two weeks later, the Red Raiders competed with the best teams from Ohio and Michigan in the Bowling Green Relays and took second with just one point less than the winning team.

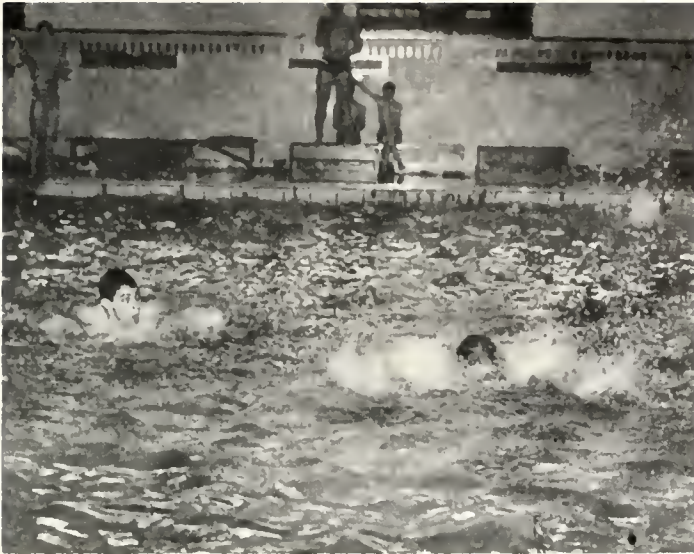

The Red Raiders ended the season by winning the Lake Erie League title with five first places. They also won the district meet and finished fourth in the state.

Freestylers Mike Whipper, Art Brooks, and Harry Hattenbach, and breaststrokes Mark Perry, Ab Glickman and Pete Crumbine gave the team important balance. Backstrokers Dave Richardson and Tom Barlett, along with divers Bob Stevens and Phil Pier, also aided the Shaker attack.

Jayvee Swimmers Prepare for Varsity

First: Bob Metz, Eric Larsen, Bob Markey, Steve Judd, Frank Krause, Bill Carlson, Bruce Olderman, Chuck Hazle. Second: Coach Ted Barclay, Carl Goodwin, Rolfe White, Ted Bynum, Bob Eastman, Bryon Switzer, Bob Sugar, Randy Kennedy, George Palmer.

For the first time in many years, Shaker had a J.V. swimming team. Coached by Ted Barclay, a teacher at the junior high, sophomores and juniors gained valuable experience which will aid them next year.

The J.V.'s swam against other J.V. teams before varsity meets. In their final meet they upset Euclid to end the season victoriously. Promising tankers for next winter are Chuck Hazle, Bruce Olderman, Steve Judd, and Bob Metz.

For the second successive year Shaker's tennis team finished second in the L.E.L. They breezed through four straight matches only to lose to Lakewood in the championship match. Tony Haber held down the number one singles post while Dick Inglis and Corky Maniaci were at second and third singles. Clyde Case, Dave Luke, Doug Ganim and Bob Lowe played at the doubles spots. This is Coach Pickering's first year with the tennis team so great things can be expected in the years to come.

Individual Sports Do Well This Year

With two returning lettermen, Mike Montlack and Ray Beallo, Coach John Newman's golf team had another successful season. Montlack and Beallo were the nucleus of a team which also included Stan Nudelman, Mike Blane, Mike Preisler, and Lorry Aurbach.

Nudelman, Blane, Aurbach, and Montlack all won championships in various tournaments last summer, so the team had considerable experience. They were the host team for the Lake Erie League tournament which was held at Highland golf course.

Cross Country Team Again 2'd in L.E.L.

Led by Bill Benson, the Lake Erie League champion, this year's cross country team did very well. They placed second in the L.E.L. and in the district. They were also victorious in five out of six dual meets. Ron Cochrane, Bob Mears, Mike Gavlak, Pete Harwood, and Benson were the backbone of the team with Earl Seidman, Sid Wolfe, and Jack Brown also aiding it with fine running. All the boys on the team deserve credit for working hard even though there is not so much glory connected with cross country as with other sports.

Track and Baseball

No one could have predicted the results of this year's track season, according to Coach Bob Rice. The team did not have much balance, but was quite strong in some events.

Pete Harwood and Sid Wolfe were the sprinters this year, while Bill Benson, Ron Cochrane, and Captain Jim Breitwig ran the middle distances. Bob Mears was at the mile. In the field events, Dick Morris and Chuck Armington handled the weights. Lynn Hammond was the pole vaulter and Chick Tate, the broad jumper.

The team was weak at the hurdles, but all in all, it was a successful track season.

Round Out the Sports Season

This year's Shaker baseball team defended the Lake Erie League championship which it won in 1954. Since many men were back from that team, Coach Fred Heinlen was able to mold another strong team.

Since infielders Jim Camella, George Brawn, Mike Bloch and Captain Joel Holmes, and outfielders Chuck Kahn, Tom Camella and Neil Ruben all were experienced ballplayers, the team had good balance. Tom Jirus and Bill German saw much service this year as an effective battery.

With the unpredictable spring weather battering the team somewhat, they were not able to practice outdoors as much as they would have liked, but the season was still a successful one.

With great enthusiasm, but little glory, an extensive boys' intramural program was carried on. It consisted of leagues in touch football, basketball, volleyball, and softball. Individual champions were crowned in badminton, swimming, and wrestling.

The wrestling tournament was one of the most popular of all the intramural tournaments with over one hundred boys competing for top honors.

Through the efforts of Coach Bob Rice, arrangements were made for six basketball teams from Shaker to travel to Shaw to meet six of their intramural teams in regular games. This gave the boys a chance to play against others of equal ability.

Numerous Opportunities for All

A noon volleyball tournament
in full swing.

The girls' sports program was designed to give each girl the opportunity to choose the sport in which she wished to participate. However, each girl was required to take a semester of dance and a team and an individual sport. A popular activity in its second year was fencing. Because of its popularity, several girls formed a fencing club which met weekly. Many girls and boys enjoyed the noon recreation program. The gym was open every day for badminton, volleyball, or basketball, and the pool was open every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Five girls, Sue Edwards, Judy Eichner, Margie Mayher, Neil Miller, and Steph Williams had the opportunity to gain valuable experience by assisting in various Shaker elementary school gym classes.

Interscholastic Games Provide Keen Competition

An active interscholastic schedule was carried on by the varsity teams this year. They played Brush, H.B., Heights, Orange, and Shaw, both at home and away. Every game provided a wonderful opportunity to make new friends, practice true sportsmanship, and, in hockey season, to wear the football team's red parkas!! All varsity members recognized the value of participating in this phase of the sports program.

VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS: First: Beverly Biederman, Barbara Ganim, Debbie Davies, Carol Finney, Barbara Biederman. Second: Paula Danaceau, Marilyn Telepak, Sally Stillinger, Dianne Danko, Andrea Williams.

An exciting part of the intramural program this year was the inter-class competition. At the end of the hockey, volleyball and basketball seasons, a class tournament was held. The winning teams from the sophomore and junior classes then played together to decide who would face the seniors in the final game. All the games were played before enthusiastic supporters, who waved banners and cheered excitedly.

Varsity "S"

Every girl who participates in intramurals, bowling, Rifle Club, Sharcs, varsity, inter-class, and all-star teams can earn points for these various activities. A girl earning 500 points is awarded an "S." A serious athlete is awarded a cup if she accumulates 1,000 points and a key if she earns as many as 1,500.

Sharcs Club Takes Us to Candy Land

Energetic Sharcs practice a routine for a swimming meet.

This spring Sharcs carried us into an imaginary candy land at their annual pageant. Every possible kind of candy was represented by the girls in numbers such as "Synchronized Sweets" and "Mellow Mints." Again this year, boys tried out on a competitive basis for parts in the show. In March the Sharcs welcomed the Lake Erie League Synchronized Swimming Clinic to our school. A new feature of the club this year was a series of routines before several of our home swimming meets. At their weekly Mandy meetings, the Sharcs improved their skills.

Swimming Leaders Accept New Responsibility

To be a member of Swimming Leaders a girl must have a Junior Life Saving certificate. Also, she must be able to pass the club's written and practical water tests. A Swimming Leader's duty is to assist in swimming classes. Another job added this year was that of assisting in varsity swimming meets. The girls prepared an official program before every meet, ushered, and recorded the various official scores during the meet.

"Shaker High is going to town."

The cheerleader squad, captained by Pat Sydow, had a full-time job this year sponsoring the bonfire in September, a dance honoring the football team and band in November, and pep rallies throughout the year. Each pep rally was under the direction of a different cheerleader and each had an individuality of its own. Remember the Friday afternoon we "tamed those Tigers"? At the bonfire the Snack bar was opened for full use for the first time. The Cheerleaders who will return in September are Beverly and Barbara Biederman, Marilyn Telepak and Jane Wattersan.

ADVERTISING

ACTIVITIES around the school made it necessary for students to buy innumerable articles at the stores in the community. The seniors in particular became occupied with selecting graduation photographs and ordering enlargements. On the opposite page, Jane Killpack points out her picture to Ralph Evans. Almost every Shakerite will remember purchasing clothes, jewelry, or other items at the shops in the following section. Many of these have special departments for teenagers and all of them welcome students.
